FINNAN HADDIES!

Best in the City because they are home cured and fresh each week. Boston Haddies are apt to be old before you get them, and they are pickled too much to suit the taste, in order to preserve them. Ours are not so. We see each fish before it is cured and know it is fresh stock. They are pickled just enough to suit the taste and the best way to prove these statements is to give us a trial order. We feel sure the quality of our Haddies will convince you we are right.

Participants in Breach of Promise Case.

On account of the importance of the case, the committee having charge of the details of the great Mock Court Trial, to be given under the auspices of Vincenia club in the opera house on Friday evening, November 18th, have secured the services of Col. A. V. Newton of Worcester, Mass., as prosecuting attorney, while the defendant, not to be outdone, has retained Gordon & Jackson to defend his hitherto good reputation.

Col. Newton is widely known as an eloquent off-hand speaker, but Gordon & Jackson will make the battle of their life and will undoubtedly make it exceedingly warm for the gentleman from Worcester.

As there is a general desire to know who are to take part in the trial, we publish the list in full. It will be a long time before so many of our prominent people are again seen in just such a relation, and it will be well for all who desire an evening of rare enjoyment to be present and hear what they have to say about the Breach of Promise case.

This is the make-up of the court: Judge, R. A. Hoar; court officer, Patrick Brown; clerk, J. Ward Carver; plaintiff, Millie Gardner; defendant, Dr. E. B. Whitaker; defendant's attorneys, Gordon & Jackson; prosecuting attorney, Col. A. V. Newton of Worcester, Mass.
